A Special Message to Farmers . . .

New Supergrow from Eastern lets you put more money in the bank and less money in the ground.

GREENVILLE-SPARTANBURG AREA farmers and dealers are served from our plant just off I-85 at Greer.

CHARLOTTE AREA: President Francis Willis talks with a customer at our plant on Hwy. 74 near Wingate, N.C.

GREENSBORO AREA customers receive full service from our third plant food plant located at Sophia, N. C.

Only one plant food formulated in North or South Carolina lets you apply exactly the nutrients your crop, field and yield call for – and nothing more. It's SUPERGROW, the prescription plant food that never adds anything you don't need to soil. You can be sure of that because SUPERGROW is based on our in-house computer analysis of your soil and your need.

If you've known us up to now mainly as distribution experts, SUPERGROW will change that. You'll look to us from now on as plant food specialists who provide you with the exact formula – out of 160,000 possibilities – that makes every crop a money crop!

These Steps Make Every Plant Food Penny Pay Off:

1. Using one of our four-wheel-drive vehicles equipped for automated soil sampling, trained personnel take soil samples for independent laboratory analysis.
2. The on-site computer at our nearest plant uses this analysis to select from 160,000 possibilities the one nutrient combination that gives you only what you need.
3. Automated controls at each location precisely meter out those nutrients for the plant food "prescription" that feeds your crop with no waste.
4. This means you spend money only for the plant food you need for the yield you want — never for nutrients already present — and you bank the rest.

TWO MEN YOU CAN CALL ON to begin your relationship with our Plant Food Division are Executive Vice President/Sales Harold Segars (left) and President Francis Willis (right).

For the fourth consecutive year, Clemson's football programs received a national award from the College Sports Information Directors of America. The 1975, 1976, and 1977 publications were tabbed among the top five in America by a panel of experts. Last year, Clemson finished second to Notre Dame, the first-place winner the last two years.

Today's Game

By Tim Bourret

The two youngest head coaches in Division I of the NCAA will battle for at least a share of supremacy in the Atlantic Coast Conference this afternoon when a 5-1 Clemson Tiger squad plays host to a 5-2 N. C. State Wolfpack team in "Death Valley."

Danny Lee Ford was born on April 2, 1948 and is the nation's youngest head coach. Bo Rein of N. C. State, who was brought into this world on July 20, 1945, held that distinction prior to Ford's appointment last December. Despite the respective coaches' inexperience, their teams have been very successful and are in the midst of one of the ACC's greatest title chases.

Ford has coached the Tigers for seven games and already has six victories and a Gator Bowl championship. Rein, who is in his fourth season at N. C. State, has a mark of 25-16-1 and a pair of bowl triumphs.

Both young mentors tutored under coaching legends. Ford played between 1967 and 1969 for Bear Bryant at Alabama and coached under college football's winningest active coach until 1973. Rein played three years at Ohio State for Woody Hayes and gained coaching experience under the fiery leader during 1969.

It is evident that Hayes and Bryant have had a significant affect on the young pair's coaching philosophies, because both N. C. State and Clemson depend heavily on the ground game, the trademarks of outstanding Alabama and Ohio State teams over the last 20 seasons.

Both N. C. State and Clemson have averaged over 230 yards per game on the ground to rank two-three in the conference rushing statistics. Clemson has run the ball on 84.0 percent of its plays this season, while N. C. State has given the ball to a running back on 81.6 percent of its plays.

In looking at the teams' rosters it is easy to see why the "three-yards and a cloud of dust" philosophy is so prevalent among the teams' game plans. The Wolfpack have the most decorated offensive lineman in the South and possibly the country in center Jim Ritcher. The senior from Hinckley, OH was a first-team All-America selection by the Associated Press and the American Football Coaches Association last year. He was the recipient of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1978, the award given to the ACC's best lineman. Chris Dieterich lines up immediately to the right of Ritcher on the Wolfpack's right side, giving N. C. State a very solid attack up the middle. Dieterich was an all-ACC selection last year and should repeat this season.

Ted Brown is no longer running wild for the Wolfpack, but there is a fine group of backs on the N. C. State team. The backs' success is an indication of the quality of the State offensive line. Billy Ray Vickers, Brown's unknown runningmate in the backfield last year, is quite a player in his own right. In fact, he has over 2,000 yards in his career at State and is fourth on the all-time Wolfpack rushing list with 2,032 yards. He is an excellent runner inside and outside who got lost in Brown's Heisman push last season. This year, Vickers has 479 yards in 112 carries.

Dwight Sullivan is the other back for Rein's team. The junior has 522 yards in 121 carries to lead the team in both departments. Quarterback Scott Smith is one of the best running quarterbacks in the South. He has 305 yards in 114 carries, but most importantly he has scored eight touchdowns, a figure that ranks among the ACC's leaders.

Smith had a great game against North Carolina in the Tar Heel's 35-21 win last week in Raleigh. The senior pre-season all-conference choice threw for a career high 203 yards and ran for an additional 64 as he ran State's innovative "Whirly-Bird" offense with aplomb. This form of attack, which calls for the quarterback and tailbacks to perform various 180 and 360 degree turns in running option plays, requires a nifty and deceptive signal caller.

Smith's favorite receiver is Mike Quick. The flanker who lives up to his name has snared 17 passes for 342 yards this year. Lee Jukes is the other wide receiver who is capable of breaking the long play. He caught five passes for 172 yards against Auburn, the top yardage total for an ACC player this season.

The Tigers certainly have a stable of backs of their own. With the injury to Lester Brown prohibiting the all-conference player from playing against Duke last week, it allowed other Clemson backs to show what they could do. The results brought a smile to Ford's tobacco-stuffed cheeks.

Freshman Chuck McSwain ran for 120 yards in 18 carries to lead the Tiger runners. The tailback from Caroleen, NC was the first freshman runningback to gain over 100 yards in a game since Harold Goggins rushed for 137 yards in 17 carries against South Carolina in 1975.

Tracy Perry continued to give the Tigers a reliable effort, running for 81 yards and two touchdowns as he showed his versatility by running out of the fullback and the tailback slots. He went over the 1,000-yard mark in his career with that performance in Durham. And classmate Marvin Sims rushed for 93 yards to take over the team lead in rushing with 404 yards for the season. The bullish fullback now has 404 for the season and 1,204 for his career, the 16th highest total in Clemson history.

But as is the case with any successful ground game, the apex of the effort is the offensive line. No one thought Tiger fans would ever forget the names Joe Bostic, Billy Hudson, Steve Kenney and Anthony King. But the names Chris Dolce, Jeff Bostic, Lee Nanney, Mark Clifford, Mark Thornton and Gary Brown are doing a pretty good job of giving Clemson fans an increasing outbreak of amnesia.

Jeff Bostic

Ball control has been the secret to Clemson's most recent success and the offensive line has been the prime architect of these well-executed plays. In the last four contests, all Clemson wins, the Tigers have averaged over 300 yards per game on the ground. Clemson has averaged 71 rushing plays a game over this period, and that was topped by the 78 running plays against the Blue Devils. The 78 ground plays set an all-time Clemson mark for a single game. Time of possession is another indication of the Tigers dominance of the line of scrimmage. Clemson has controlled the ball an average of 35.8 minutes a game over the last four contests.

So, today's game shapes up as a battle of power. Survival of the fittest will certainly be the theme of the 48th encounter between N. C. State and Clemson.

It will be beneficial for all Clemson fans to arrive in Tigertown a little earlier than usual next week because two interesting sporting events will take place. At 10:30 AM Bill Foster's basketball squad will hold the Orange & White scrimmage in Littlejohn Coliseum. The contest is free of charge. The Tigers are preparing for the November 15 exhibition game with the Athletes in Action. Tipoff with one of the world's best amateur teams is scheduled for 8:00 PM.

The Atlantic Coast Conference cross country championships will be run at Clemson next Saturday at 11:00 AM. The Tigers are the defending champions and are hoping for much orange support to enhance their chances of defending the title on their home course.

UNIVERSITY SQUARE

ACROSS FROM LITTLEJOHN COLISEUM

The 1968 Clemson-N.C. State game was one of the most exciting in Tiger history, and most memorable to sophomore Ray Yauger

There are several games in my Clemson football career that are especially memorable, but the 1968 Clemson-North Carolina State game in which the Tigers won 24-19 was one of the most exciting.

At game time, the weather was hot and humid. After State won the coin toss and elected to receive, an 80 yard State touchdown dash immediately set a fast pace for the game.

Buddy Gore received the ensuing kickoff and made a spectacular return to the State 20, and a Billy Ammons to Jim Sursavage pass tied the score, 7-7. What an exciting start: 14 points after 3 minutes of play! Gore's return was superb, but because of the heat, he was exhausted. This gave me an opportunity to play tailback as opposed to my fullback position, and it was a welcome switch to play tailback in the I-formation.

In the second quarter, the Tigers went 65 yards in four plays after a Klebe pass was intercepted by Jimmy Catoe at the Clemson 36. A beautiful Ammons to Charlie Waters pass for 35 yards was the highlight of this drive. State did manage a 29-yard field goal with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, and at intermission Clemson led 14-10.

Early in the third quarter, a 50-yard punt return by Mike Funderburk to the State 27 was followed by a pass interference call at the State 17. These two plays set up a field goal by Jim Barnette that increased our lead to 17-10.

The fourth quarter was an exciting affair indeed. State was held by the Tiger defense after a first and goal on the Clemson four yard line. The Tigers took over on their own one yard line, but Ammons was thrown in our own end zone for a safety, and State narrowed the margin to 17-12.

With less than three minutes left in the game, a long touchdown pass by State put the Wolfpack ahead 19-17, however excellent passing by Ammons and clutch receptions by Charlie Waters and Jack Anderson carried us to the State seven yard line. We faced third down, seven yards to go for a touchdown with less than a minute to play. Ammons called on me to run a dive play up the middle with the instruction from Coach Howard to "get the ball in good position for the field goal." I started up the middle, but immediately saw the defensive end crash inside. At this point, I ran for the corner of the end zone and scored. We had gone 69 yards in seven plays for the TD, and with only 53 seconds left, State was unable to score as time expired: Clemson 24, State 19. The moment I scored that winning touchdown in this game, believe me, it was one terrific feeling!

THE CLEMSON UNIVERSITY TIGER BAND presents

A Salute to The Year of the Child

By Andy Ronemus

Pre-game and halftime festivities of today's game between the Tigers of Clemson University and the Wolfpack of North Carolina State will be filled with many activities.

Pre-game activities begin when the band enters the field, led by assistant drum major Joe Ballard, performing "Sock It To 'Em." Dean of the College of Industrial Management and Textile Science, Wallace Trevillian, will be honored as he performs the duty of dotting the "i" in Tiger.

Dean Trevillian is closely tied to the Sirrine Foundation and part of the pre-game festivities will be acknowledging this foundation. The Sirrine Foundation was formed in 1944 in an effort to improve the textile education at Clemson University. The group of textile industries that compile the membership of this foundation contributed $85,000 to Clemson this year. This money goes to support the 19 programs that are designed to improve the College of Textiles at Clemson.

The Clemson Majorettes: Standing – Dana Riddle, Paula Peeler, Charlotte Rowell, Tootsie Elam, Cathy Rigg. Kneeling – B. J. Rhodes, Becky Dalton, Lynn Montjoy.

One of these programs is a scholarship of $750 each to eight undergraduate students. Dean Trevillian said, "When budgets were normal, Sirrine Foundation help was like icing on the cake, but during the recent period of tight budgets, it's like yeast in the dough." This statement exemplifies the importance of the Sirrine Foundation to Clemson University.

The Clemson University Chorus and ROTC Color Guards join the band for the National Anthem and Clemson Alma Mater.

Pre-game festivities end as the band, playing "Tiger Rag," forms the tunnel through which the team will run.

This being the year of the child, the band would like to play a salute to children everywhere. A tune from the big band era, "Poinciana," will open today's halftime performance. The band will enter the field to this song which was arranged by Kelley Love.

From the movie, "Lady Sings the Blues," played by Diana Ross, comes the next song, "God Bless the Child." This was a blues number that was remade for the movie.

From the movie "Stop the World, I want to get off," comes the tune "What Kind of Fool Am I." Jay Bocook, Travelers Rest Band Director, arranged this tune in a special way. Mike Schwehr, the drum major, will lead the band during todays halftime.

Six new members of the Clemson Hall of Fame will also be honored this afternoon. Contained in this program is an article that will detail each man's outstanding athletic accomplishments.

After the presentation of the Hall of Fame members, the band exits the field to Tiger Rag, setting the scene for the second half of today's pivotal ACC game.

CLEMSON

Since its founding in 1893, the story of Clemson University has been one of constant growth in an atmosphere of tradition.

Where 446 students first met for courses in agriculture and engineering, more than 11,000 young people now pursue these two fields as well as architecture, education, forestry, industrial and recreational management, textile science, nursing, liberal arts and the social, biological, physical and mathematical sciences.

In terms of academic excellence, the quality of both students and faculty is high. More than two-thirds of the freshmen who entered Clemson this fall graduated in the top 20 percent of their high school classes. The University last year produced two Fulbright-Hays Scholars and a Truman Scholar, and The Tiger was named one of the best student newspapers in the country.

Several Clemson faculty members are officers in major professional societies or editors of major journals. The campus was also the site last year for national and international meetings of poultry scientists and biomaterials researchers.

Though Tillman Hall still stands as a treasured landmark and a symbol of Clemson's heritage, it no longer stands alone. Today the University campus includes 600 acres of academic buildings, student housing, service facilities and equipment valued at $161 million.

In addition to the nuclear campus, Clemson encompasses more than 30,000 additional acres of experimental farms and woodlands throughout the state. Major renovation of Sirrine Hall and Memorial Stadium will be completed this year, and work will begin on a new $4.7 million Pee Dee Research and Education Center for Agriculture near Florence.

The University enters a new era as Bill Atchley takes the administrative helm as Clemson's ninth president. A strong, friendly leader, Atchley will set the pace for continued growth and leadership. Whether it's academics, research or continuing education for South Carolina's economic development, Clemson University leads the way in service to people.

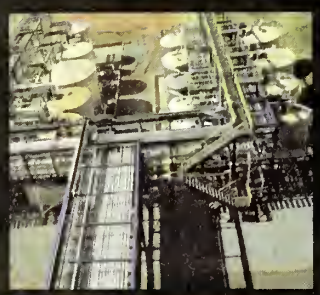
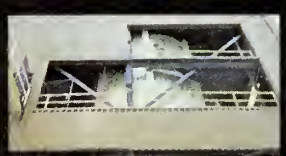
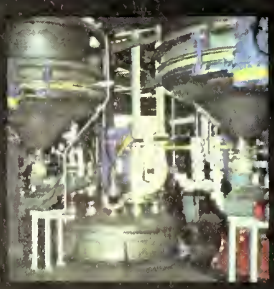
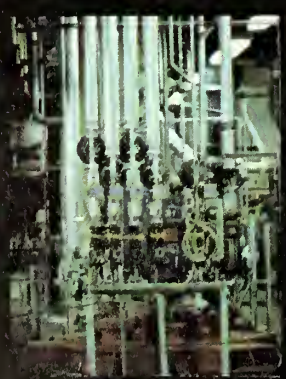
A CONCRETE COMMITMENT









What better way to state a commitment than to put it in concrete. And that's exactly what our new manufacturing plant in Martin, South Carolina signifies — Sandoz' commitment to provide quality dyes and chemicals to the industries we serve.

This new facility, situated on a 4,600 acre tract, represents an initial multi-million dollar investment. The complex, aside from the production unit containing the latest in dye and chemical manufacturing equipment, also includes a modern technical support center, expansive warehouse, administrative offices, and the necessary peripheral structures for power, maintenance and environmental controls.

The Sandoz Martin Works is now on-stream about the same time other sources have changed in mid-stream. Sandoz is committed to the viability of the dye and chemical consuming industries. This is a concrete commitment.

Clemson's Athletic Administration

During 1978-79, Clemson University enjoyed its greatest all-around athletic year ever. This excellence was documented last August when The Knoxville Journal released its annual nationwide all-sports study. The researchers found that Clemson had the fourth best all-around sports program in the United States. Only UCLA, Southern California, and Arkansas scored more points than the Tigers.

And the man directly responsible for the Tigers' rise and continued success among the major college powers is Athletic Director Bill McLellan.

Only the third man to own the title of Athletic Director over the past 48 years, McLellan assumed his present position February 4, 1971, and since that date has directed the Tigers through their greatest decade ever of national athletic prominence. Four years in a row Clemson has been ranked in the top 25 in the all-sports poll.

In all, 18 of Clemson's 19 varsity sports sent an individual or a team to post-season action.

McLellan's dedication to continued growth and development of Clemson's facilities is another major reason for the Tigers' meteoric rise on the sports scene. During his tenure the Tigers have christened the Frank Johnstone Jervey Athletic Center, possibly the most modern and complete complex under one roof, increased the permanent seating of Clemson Memorial Stadium from 43,451 to 53,306, opened a beautiful swimming facility which will be the site of ACC Swimming Championships over the next two years, and constructed a nine-lane all-weather track where the '78 ACC Meet was held.

While he has erected an athletic powerhouse on the varsity level, McLellan has also developed a solid intramural program for the student body which attracts record participation every year. That's why Bill McLellan is recognized as a total athletic director.

A native of Hamer, SC, the 47-year-old McLellan was a two-time football letterman for the Tigers and a member of Clemson's 1952 Gator Bowl team.

He received his BS degree from Clemson in 1954, and his MS two years later.

After joining the athletic staff in 1958, he spent more than a decade with the Tigers as assistant football coach, Assistant Business Manager, Assistant Athletic Director, and Associate Athletic Director before his appointment to his current position.

Assistant Athletic Director Bobby Robinson and Athletic Director Bill McLellan.

But McLellan will be the first man to tell you that many knowledgeable people are needed to run an efficient and successful athletic department. Assistant Athletic Director Bobby Robinson is the catalyst of McLellan's group of responsible aides.

Robinson, now in his 10th year at Clemson and the 1st season as assistant AD, coordinates the business and financial needs for all 19 sports at Clemson. He also serves as the Head Golf Coach.

A Financial Wizard can make hay while the sun shines. Or the moon.

Because they can do almost all their banking any hour, any day. Without having to go inside the bank.

If you're a Financial Wizard, you can get money to go, 24 hours a day.

Not just deposits and withdrawals from their checking accounts, but from their savings accounts, too. As well as loan payments, transfers from one account to another, and lots of other kinds of transactions.

Being a Financial Wizard can give your banking a shot in the arm.

And it's really easy to be-come a Financial Wizard. All you have to do is become a C&S customer.

You don't have to be a genius to see there are good reasons to be a Financial Wizard.

A Financial Wizard can issue orders for an immediate transfer—from one account to another.

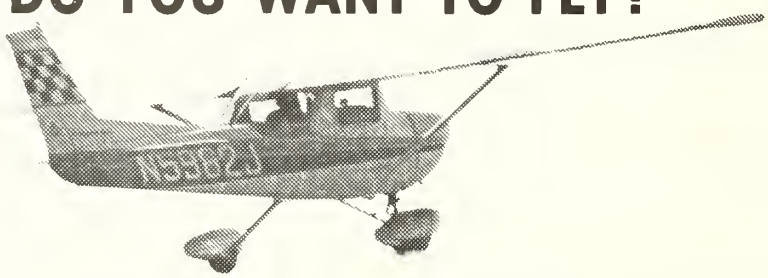
DO YOU WANT TO FLY?



Face it you've always wanted to fly! Many of us have had the feeling and for some it has never gone away.

If you have that feeling, then you're in luck. Air Force ROTC Flight Instruction Program (FIP) is available to you. It's designed to teach you the basics of flight through flying lessons in small aircraft at a civilian operated flying school.

The program is an EXTRA for cadets who can qualify to become Air Force pilots through Air Force ROTC. Taken during the senior year in college, FIP is the first step for the cadet who is going on to Air Force jet pilot training after graduation.

This is all reserved for the cadet who wants to get his life off the ground . . . with Air Force silver pilot wings. Check it out today.

Danny Ford, Head Football Coach

Nearly 40 years ago Clemson University selected an enthusiastic 31-year-old to lead its football program. At the time, bushy-haired Frank Howard was one of the youngest head coaches in the nation. Now, 40 years later, the Tiger administrators have again selected a youthful mentor to guide the football team.

Danny Ford, who turned 31 last April 2, is the youngest Division I head coach in the NCAA. Despite his youth, he is more than qualified to accept his present duties, for he has been associated with some of the best football programs in the nation.

A 1970 graduate of the University of Alabama, Ford played for three consecutive Bowl teams under the legendary Bear Bryant. The All-Southeastern Conference tackle played in the 1968 Cotton Bowl, the 1968 Gator Bowl and the 1969 Liberty Bowl. An All-SEC Academic selection, he served as team captain of the Crimson Tide in 1969.

After receiving his B.S. degree in industrial arts, Ford remained at Alabama as a graduate assistant for the 1970 and 1971 seasons. After earning a master's degree in special education in 1971, Ford was made a full time assistant for the next two seasons. And the Tide went to four more post-season games while Ford was on Bryant's staff.

Clemson's new mentor then accepted a position of assistant coach on Jimmy Sharpe's staff at Virginia Tech. He remained in Blacksburg for three seasons (1974-75-76), before he was beckoned to Clemson by Charley Pell, who had just been named the Tigers' head coach. Pell and Ford had served together on the VPI staff for two seasons.

When Pell resigned as head football coach at Clemson for a similar position at Florida, the Student Affairs Committee of the Clemson Board of Trustees only considered one name as Pell's successor — Danny Ford. Ford not only had the backing of Pell, but also from members of the Clemson football team. He was then assistant head coach and offensive line coach of the Tigers.

After two meetings between Ford and the committee on the morning of December 5, 1978, it was the unanimous opinion of the committee that Ford should be named Clemson's 21st head coach.

At a press conference on December 10, 1978, Pell relinquished the head coaching duties of the Gator Bowl to Ford. And Clemson's bright new coach responded like a 20-year veteran.

The handsome coach conquered all kinds of adversity in leading the Tigers to a nationally televised 17-15 triumph over perennial national powerhouse Ohio State in the Gator Bowl. Few coaches in NCAA history have made a more celebrated or successful beginning.

Now Ford faces his first full season as a head coach. His 1979 club needs to fill many holes, especially on offense. But solving offensive problems is not new to Ford. He has been given much credit for molding Clemson's offensive scheme, which in the past two seasons, has scored 596 points and set countless offensive records.

The native of Gadsden, AL, is married to the former Deborah Anderson of Attalla, AL, and they are the parents of two daughters, Jennifer, 6, and Ashleigh, 4.

Danny Ford's first Clemson victory as a head coach. Players carry the NCAA's youngest major college head coach from the field after 17-15 Gator Bowl win over Ohio State in 1978.

The seven "natural laws" of the business community.

Murphy's Law
Nothing is as easy as it looks.
It will take longer than you think.
If anything can go wrong, it will.

Chisholm's Second Law of Human Interaction
Any time things appear to be going better, you have overlooked something.

Finagle's Law
Once a job is fouled up, anything done to improve it will make it worse.

Rudin's Law
In a crisis that forces a choice to be made among alternative courses of action, most people will choose the worst one possible.

Weiler's Law
Nothing is impossible for the man who doesn't have to do it himself.

Crane's Law

ACC COMMENTS: Where Are They Now?

GARY CUOZZO, Virginia: Few people have enjoyed the combination of athletic and academic success Gary Cuozzo has earned since he played football at Virginia (1960-62). In three seasons, Cuozzo broke every Cavalier passing standard and intercepted enemy passes from the defensive backfield while earning Phi Beta Kappa and academic All-America honors in the classroom. Cuozzo moved on to a nine-year NFL career where he sidestepped the shadows of all-time passing leaders John Unitas (Baltimore) and Fran Tarkenton (Minnesota) to pass for 6,505 yards, 38 touchdowns, and a 1970 Super Bowl appearance with the Vikings. Cuozzo punted his playbooks and studied long and hard enough during the off-season to graduate first in his class from the University of Tennessee dental school in 1970. He retired from pro-football in 1972 and now maintains a successful practice as an orthodontist in his hometown of Montclair, N.J.

Gary Cuozzo

Don Buckey

JIMMY ADDISON, Clemson: Addison was about the most "un-looking football player" ever to come to Clemson. Coach Frank Howard named him "Needle" because of his 6-0, 163-pound frame. If the wind got over 20 miles an hour, Howard had to tie Addison down. Addison went unnoticed until the starting quarterback got hurt in a Saturday scrimmage and Howard jumped him from the fifth team to keep all teams intact. The rest is history. Addison ranks seventh in Clemson total offense. He graduated with a 3.71 GPR and once when Addison recorded a "B" Howard remarked that "one of them dumb professors is trying to flunk him out." Addison graduated from University of Virginia Law School in 1971 and today is a successful attorney with the firm of Troutman, Sanders, Lockerman and Ashmore in Atlanta, Ga.

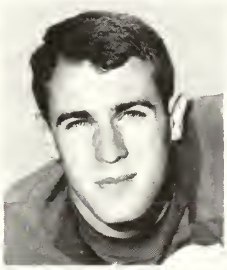
Jimmy Addison

Ed Sutton

BOB SMITH, Maryland: Bob Smith, Maryland's three time All-ACC safety is presently employed at the U.S.D.A. in Washington, D.C., while working towards his M.A. in Micro-Biology at the University of Maryland. Smith, who is also a graduate assistant teacher in the Micro-Biology department, is married to the former Maryland cheerleader, Janet Greenwalt, who owns and operates a dance studio in Washington. Besides being named to All-American lists as a safety all three years for Jerry Claiborne's football squad, he was one of the highly ranked punt returners in the country. Smith holds the Maryland single season record for most punt returns (40) and most yards gained on punt returns (420) in 1973. Smith returned punts of 83 yards against Penn State, 72 yards against North Carolina and 56 yards against Villanova for touchdowns, to go along with his 12 career interceptions.

Bob Smith

Bob Bartholomew



Jay Wilkinson

JAY WILKINSON, Duke: The first time Jay Wilkinson ever touched a football as a varsity football player at Duke, he ran 63 yards for a touchdown on a punt return. Today, Wilkinson, a 1963 All-America, works as vice-president for Public Employee Benefits Services Corporation in Oklahoma City, Okla. Wilkinson administers the deferred compensation program and his main project is his work with the United States Conference of Mayors in relationship to compensation programs. Before going into business with Public Employee, Wilkinson made an unsuccessful attempt for Congress in 1970.

DON BUCKEY, N.C. State: Don, often referred to as "the other Buckey" because his twin brother Dave drew the spotlight at quarterback, set two school records in pass receiving as a split end during his four-year career (1972-75) and shares a third. His 102 career receptions is still a Wolfpack standard, as is his 1,735 yards. His two TD catches against Duke in 1974 shares the single-game mark with seven others. An All-America and all-conference selection his senior season, Don, a native of Akron, Ohio, had many outstanding games for the Wolfpack, but remembers a 15-14 win over Penn State and a 21-21 comeback tie with Duke during his final campaign as highlights. After a brief stint with the New York Jets, Don returned to North Carolina, married his college sweetheart, the former Elaine Hartofelis, and is currently employed in Raleigh by Roadway Express, Inc., in its Management Training Program.

ED SUTTON, North Carolina: Ed Sutton, a star tailback at Carolina in the mid-1950's, is now a surgeon in private practice in Gardena, Calif. Sutton led the Tar Heels in rushing, pass receiving, scoring, punt returns and kickoff returns in 1956. Sutton turned in one of the finest performances in Carolina history that year in a 21-14 loss at Notre Dame. He ran for 136 yards, caught three passes and completed three, including one for a touchdown. Irish players voted him the best back they faced that year. Following his graduation from Carolina, Sutton attended medical school at the University of Tennessee. He also played five seasons of pro football with the Redskins, Giants and Packers. He then served as a captain in the Army Medical Corps, spending one year in Vietnam and one year in Japan.

BOB BARTHOLOMEW, Wake Forest: In his playing days as a defensive tackle, Bob Bartholomew spent much of his time preventing opponents from starting big drives down the field. Now, 24 years later, he is working hard to establish successful drives of his own. Bartholomew now serves as executive director of the Wake Forest University Deacon Club Foundation, an organization designed to raise scholarship funds for athletes. Since his appointment, in 1969, the Deacon Club's membership has increased vastly, giving hundreds of athletes the chance to attend Wake Forest. Three times as a player Bartholomew received All-ACC honors and in 1955 he earned a spot on the All-American Academic team. The same year he served as Deacon co-captain and played in the North-South Shrine game in Miami. He played briefly in the Canadian Football League before calling it quits due to a knee injury. He later worked for several insurance firms before accepting his current position.

Use common sense every day. Save a few dollars every month.

With what electricity costs to make and distribute these days, it's just not the dirt-cheap commodity it used to be. And, as a result, your monthly bill is probably higher now.

But remember: the amount of money you're billed each month is determined solely by the amount of electricity you use. And the amount of electricity you use is determined solely by you.

So use it wisely. Turn your thermostat down a few degrees in the winter, and up a few degrees in the summer. Switch off lights you don't need, and appliances you aren't using. Because whenever you waste power, you waste dollars. And it doesn't make sense to do that.

GRIDIRON GREATNESS BRINGS DOLLARS FOR SCHOLARS

by Jim Stovall

A major contributor to making the Tiger defense one of the nation's best is No. 47 Bubba Brown, shown here with Chevrolet beneficiaries Barry Lee Gibson and Nancy Carol Hartsell.

Clemson running back Lester Brown, better known to Tiger fans as No. 44, chats with scholarship winners Joseph E. Zimmerman and Suzanne Cook Ebelein.

Nancy Hartsell never expected her $500 scholarship would come from Clemson football. After all, she doesn't even play.

Nancy is one of the eight Clemson students who share scholarship money given last year by Chevrolet to honor the gridiron performances of four Clemson football standouts. The Chevrolet Awards, $1,000 each, are presented for the outstanding offensive and defensive players during games broadcast by ABC-TV.

Two of the players named for awards return to the field today. Bubba Brown, who was cited for his performance in last year's contest between North Carolina State and Clemson, shares his scholarship money with Nancy Carol Hartsell, a sophomore math and computer science major from Clemson, and Barry Lee Gibson, a senior administrative management major from Greenville. Nancy is a winner of a Sigma Tau Epsilon Sophomore Award, while Barry is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, the administrative management honor society.

Lester Brown also won recognition in last year's N. C. State game. Scholarships in his honor went to Suzanne Cook Ebelein, a sophomore history major from Greenville, and Joseph Earl Zimmerman, a sophomore chemical engineering student from Spartanburg. Suzanne is the winner of a Sigma Tau Epsilon Sophomore Award, and Joseph is a Tau Beta Pi Scholarship winner and a member of the Calhoun Literary Society.

Representing former quarterback Steve Fuller are Thomas W. Dickinson, a sophomore microbiology major from Bishopville, and Matthew C. Somerville, a sophomore forestry management student from Fairfax, Va. Dickinson is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Somerville of Alpha Zeta; both are honor societies.

Defensive player Randy Scott garnered the final award along with Fuller in last year's Virginia Tech game. His award is split by Paul S. Coombs, a senior, and Oscar F. Lovelace, a sophomore. Both are zoology majors. Coombs is a member of Tiger Brotherhood, Blue Key and Mortar Board; Lovelace is a student senator and a representative to both the Honors and Undergraduate councils.

LESTER BROWN —One of Clemson's Greatest

By Tim Bourret

Tied for First on Clemson's All-Time TD list
Second on the single season rushing list
Second on the all-time scoring list
Fifth on the all-time rushing list
Fifth on the all-time carries list
All-ACC in 1978
Second in the nation in TDS in 1978
Fourth in the nation in scoring in 1978

The preceding statistics and accomplishments are emblematic of an outstanding performer, one of the best in Clemson football history. And when you think of where Lester Brown stood in relation to the all-time greats of Tiger pigskin lore a little more than a year ago, the accomplishments are even more impressive.

After the first two games of 1978 it appeared Brown would be fortunate to rush for 1,000 yards in his career, never mind 2,000. In the first two games of Clemson's most successful season in decades, the Myrtle Beach, SC native had 10 carries for 21 yards. His career rushing total was not among the career leaders and it appeared Brown was destined to alternate at the tailback spot with Harold Goggins and Warren Ratchford for the rest of the season.

But Brown made a meteoric rise to greatness over the next few weeks. He gained 836 yards in the final seven regular season games or an average of 119 yards per contest. "There is no one reason why I improved so much," said Brown. "Confidence is probably the biggest thing. We had a down game against Georgia and I gained only six yards. The next week I had a good game against Villanova, the offensive line really got after it, and I was on my way.

"The game that really turned it around was the Virginia game in Charlottesville. I had a 59-yard run on the first play and 178 for the game. I was flying."

Lester's performance was not a complete surprise to the Tiger coaching staff, but Danny Ford admits that he did not expect that big a season out of Lester. "We thought we would alternate Lester and Ratchford for most of the season. We hoped to get 50 yards and a solid average out of him, but by the Virginia game he had taken over. It was amazing, he went from a good back to a great one almost over night. There wasn't any one thing he did that caused the change. It was confidence in his ability more than anything else.

"Lester has the talent. His greatest asset is that he has a knack for finding the goal line in near impossible situations. He has great leaping ability and is tough in any situation despite his size. He is not a bulky back, but a slicing runner."

That style has been Brown's trademark and has led to his now famous nickname, "Rubber Duck." "That nickname started in my first year," said Brown. "The linemen used to say I was hard to tackle because they could not get a firm grip on me. They said I was pliable like one of those rubber ducks kids play with. Another player said I had a long neck and that I looked like a duck with my helmet on. So I guess there are two reasons. It sure has stuck, the coaches even call me Duck."

For Brown, 1979 has been a year of frustration. When he has been healthy he has been as effective as last season, just ask Furman and Virginia. But on three occasions this season he has had to miss the second half of contests and the whole Duke game because of various physical problems. The difficulties came to a head at Virginia Tech on October 13 when he suffered bruised ribs.

"The injuries have been frustrating because I had some goals established before the season began and it appears I won't be able to reach them. I wanted to rush for 1,500 yards and set the rushing Clemson record for a career, but missing so much time will make it tough."

But even if Lester Brown never plays again he will be remembered as one of the top backs in Clemson annals.

THE FIRST CHEVY OF THE '80s. CITATION. OUR MOST SUCCESSFUL NEW CAR EVER.

Ever since its introduction, people have been flooding Chevy showrooms across the country to see the 1980 Chevy Citation. And according to Retail Delivery Reports, 33,765 units were sold in its first three weeks, more than any new entry Chevrolet has ever introduced.

MID-SIZE ROOM FOR 5.

Citation's engine is mounted sideways, so the passenger compartment can be bigger. In fact, in EPA interior dimensions, Citation is classified as a mid-size car. With the back seat folded down there's room enough for two adults in front and 30 bags of groceries in back.

0 TO 50 IN 9 SECONDS FLAT WITH THE AVAILABLE V6.

In engineering tests, Citation goes from 0 to 50 in 9 seconds flat. That's with available 2.8 Liter V6 engine and automatic transmission. California figures not available. (Citation is equipped with GM-built engines produced by various divisions. See your dealer for details.)

GM
MARK OF EXCELLENCE

EASY ON GAS. (24) EPA ESTIMATED MPG. 38 HIGHWAY ESTIMATE.

That's with Citation's standard 2.5 Liter 4-cylinder engine and manual transmission. (Manual transmission currently not available in California. Calif. estimates lower.)

Citation's standard 4-speed transmission is made to conserve gas. It's an overdrive. And at cruising speeds the 4th gear lets the engine run slower than with a conventional transmission, helping to get impressive fuel economy.

IMPRESSIVE LONG-RANGE CRUISING ESTIMATES, TOO.

And Citation's long-range cruising estimates are just as impressive. 336 miles based on EPA estimated MPG (city) mileage figures, and 532 miles based on estimated highway MPG. Range figures obtained by multiplying Citation's 14-gallon fuel tank capacity rating by the EPA mileage estimates.

REMEMBER: Compare the circled estimated MPG to the estimated MPG of other cars. You may get different mileage and range depending on your speed, trip length and weather. Your actual city mileage and range will be less in heavy city traffic. Your actual mileage will probably be less than the highway estimate.

YOU'VE GOT TO DRIVE IT TO BELIEVE IT.

When you drive Citation you'll see what all the excitement is about. The way it feels. The way it maneuvers. The way it rides. And Citation's front wheel drive puts approximately 65% of its weight over the "driving wheels" to give you impressive traction on wet or snowy roads.

IT'S A WHOLE NEW KIND OF COMPACT CAR.

There's still a lot about Citation that we haven't mentioned. Like slip stream design to cut down on wind resistance and wind noise. The hidden cargo area in all hatchback models, so what's inside is protected from view. A dual diagonal braking system. And much, much more. That's why we encourage you to see your Chevy dealer and test drive the 1980 Chevy Citation today. This could be the car you've had in mind.

Tigers Aim for Another Post-Season Bid

By Tim Bourret

Last fall, every major magazine, news service or media poll rated the Clemson basketball team as the Atlantic Coast Conference's most likely cellar dweller. In fact, one publication picked the Tigers to finish eighth in the seven-team league.

But, a group of experienced seniors and enthusiastic newcomers combined with one of the South's top tacticians, Bill Foster, to guide Clemson to a 19-10 record, two tournament titles and a National Invitation Tournament bid. The Tigers downed Kentucky in Lexington in the first round in what might have been the biggest win in Clemson history.

With seven lettermen, including four players who started at the end of the season, two red-shirts, and the addition of four promising signees, the Clemson Tiger faithfuls are optimistic that another post-season tournament appearance is right around the corner.

"I am expecting another good year because I can see our players' attitudes are very healthy," said Foster, who is beginning his fifth season in Tigertown. "Everyone came back to school in good shape and with a lot of enthusiasm. Making the NIT last year has a lot to do with that. Everyone feels we have the potential to reach a post-season tournament again this year and it has served to motivate the players."

The Tigers' return to post season play should be enhanced by the players' versatility. "We have a number of players, who with hard work can play different positions," said Foster. "We could see several different lineups during the course of a game. I won't be afraid to use several players at different positions. We plan to play 9-11 players every game just as we have in the past. We will give everyone an opportunity early in the season and find out which combinations work the best. With only one three-year letterman (Bobby Conrad) we are still a young team and patience will be a must!"

THE BACKCOURT

The Tigers should be strong in the backcourt with the return of starters Bobby Conrad and Billy Williams, and the addition of transfer Chris Dodds. All three could play the wing or point guard spots because of their all-around abilities and keen basketball sense.

Bill Foster has led Clemson to 74 wins over the last four years.

"We probably will rotate Williams, Conrad and Dodds like we did with Williams, Conrad and Johnson (Derrick) last year," said Foster. "It was a very effective system for us, especially at the end of the season. That way we always have a fresh guard duo in the game."

Conrad was the catalyst of the Tiger offense last season. A point guard by trade, the Glen Ellyn, IL native started all of Clemson's ACC wins last year and led the team in assists with 101. His spirited play earned him the respect of ACC followers and, as a result, he finished sixth in the voting for ACC Player of the Year honors. That is quite an accomplishment for someone who averaged 4.7 points per game.

Williams was one of the league's most consistent players. The Raleigh, NC native, who is in his third season with Clemson after transferring from Brevard Community College in Cocoa, FL, scored in double figures in 27 of 29 games last year. The 6-3 senior averaged a team-high 13.2 points per game and shot a steady 52.7 percent from the field, the fourth best figure in the league.

Dodds will be in his first season with the Tigers, but his second in major college competition. The 6-1 sophomore spent the 1977-78 season at Davidson where he averaged 18.5 points per game. The State College, PA resident dealt out a Southern Conference record 203 assists and gained Southern Conference Rookie of the Year honors. And he did not build his statistics against weak competition. Just ask Norm Sloan who saw Dodds score 35 points against the Wolfpack that year.

Consistent Guard Bill Williams

Rookies Mitchell Wiggins, Rick McKinstry and Scott Wilkes are swingmen who could help the Tigers in the frontcourt or the backcourt. Wiggins is a 6-4 leaper who enters Clemson as a sophomore after spending one season at Truett-McConnell Junior College in Cleveland, GA. During his season under former Clemson assistant Eddie Payne, Wiggins scored over 25 points per game and earned second-team JUCO All-America honors. He shot 55.4 percent from the field and led the team in rebounding with nine per game. McKinstry is a 6-5 freshman from Indianapolis, IN, the same area that sent Derrick Johnson to Clemson. He averaged 22 points per game last season in leading Howe High School to the regional finals of the Indiana state tournament.

Scott Wilkes is a heady guard who scored 22 points per game for Massanutten Academy in Woodstock, VA, the same prep school that sent Clemson quarterback Glenn Gallagher to Clemson last year. The Deland, FL native who is the son of Stetson Head Coach Glenn Wilkes, played three seasons at Deland High School. That squad was 13th-ranked in the country by Basketball Weekly his last year at the Florida school.

Daniel Mayfield, Marvin Key and Bob Fuzy are pure guards that will help the backcourt cause.

FRONTCOURT

"We should be a good rebounding team, that should be one of our biggest

"Everyone came back to school in good shape and with a lot of enthusiasm. Making the NIT last year has a lot to do with that. Everyone feels we have the potential to reach a post-season tournament again this year and it has served to motivate the players." — Bill Foster strengths," said Foster. "We got away from our running game a little last year, but I think we can go back to it more this year if Nance (Larry), Campbell (John) and the others get the ball off the boards. We hope to have the personnel to run more this season."

Larry Nance is the best of Clemson's frontcourt contingent. The 6-10 junior might play center or forward this year, depending on the progress of the other frontcourt players. Nance came out of nowhere to lead the team in rebounding with a 7.2 figure, the fifth best average in the ACC. He added 11.1 points per game and led the club in blocked shots.

The play of center John Campbell could be a major determinent of the Tigers' success this season. "Moose" got off to a great start and had a fine finish last year, but his performance in the middle 18 games was sporadic. He averaged 5.6 points and 4.5 rebounds per game last year, but closed with an impressive 15-rebound effort against Old Dominion in the NIT, giving Clemson followers reason for optimism about the coming season.

Marvin Dickerson's old forward spot is up for grabs. Five players, three lettermen, a red-shirt and a freshman, will fight for that berth. Horace Wyatt and Bill Ross are the leading candidates because they both started at times last year. Wyatt started six games in a row at mid-season, all Clemson victories. He averaged 5.9 points per game. Ross, who started several games including the triumph over South Carolina in Columbia last year, contributed 5.4 points per game.

Keith Walker is a junior forward with a wealth of talent. He saw limited action last season because he had troubles adapting to Clemson's system. With a year under his belt, Foster is hoping Walker can make the same kind of improvement Williams made after his first year at Clemson. Keith Whitt is the red-shirt freshman who will compete for frontcourt playing time. The 6-6 forward from Hanover, MA is a fine outside shooter and solid passer.

Fred Gilliam is the fourth freshman signee for the Tigers. The 6-8 forward from Pelzer, SC averaged over 20 points per game for Woodmont High School last year. He will remind many Clemson followers of Jimmy Howell because of his outside shooting ability. Freshman walkon Don Witherspoon, a 6-9 forward from Lexington, KY, also will help the frontcourt situation.

Hall of Famers

by Jeff Rhodes

The six men who will be inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in special ceremonies at today's game will bring the total number of athletes and coaches so honored to 42.

Today's ceremony marks the seventh annual observance of this event at Clemson.

The 1979 inductees include baseball standouts Hal Stowe and Flint Rhem, grid stars Bill Mathis and "Shad" Bryant, boxer Russell Dorn, and coach Jess Neely.

Harold Rudolph Stowe's statistics on the baseball diamond were quite impressive. He pitched 49 games in three seasons (1957-59) for the Tigers, and he had a career record of 24-13 (a .649 percentage) and an earned run average of 2.32. Stowe was an All-ACC selection in 1958, all-district three in 1958 and 1959. He played in the College World Series in 1959 and was an all-tournament choice. He holds five Tiger records: season victories (14), most games (21), most games started (15), most innings pitched (126⅔), and most strike-outs (126). The latter is an ACC record. Hal Stowe is now owner/operator of Stowe's Fish Camp.

Charles Flint Rhem was a star pitcher at Clemson before he broke into the major leagues in the late 1920's. He played with the St. Louis Cardinals, Philadelphia and the Boston Braves for 12 years before he hung up his cleats. Rhem pitched in 294 games and had a career record of 105-97. His best year in the major leagues came in 1926, when he was 20-7. He pitched in the World Series in 1926 and 1928 with the Cardinals. He threw two home run pitches to Babe Ruth in the '26 Series before he was taken out for a pinch hitter. Flint Rhem passed away in August, 1969.

William Hart Mathis played almost every position during his three varsity seasons with the football Tigers. He was a running back, punter, and defensive back at various times between 1957-59. Mathis played on the 1958 Tiger team that lost to number-one ranked LSU 7-0 in the 1959 Sugar Bowl and the '59 team that beat Texas Christian 23-7 in the '59 Bluebonnet Bowl. His Tiger stats include 216 rushes for 975 yards, 34 catches for 602 yards, seven touchdowns and a total of 126 points. He intercepted two passes and had a 35.8-yard average for the 53 times he punted the pigskin. He then went to the professional ranks and he played 11 years for the New York Jets before retiring in 1970. Bill Mathis is now a stockbroker and co-owner of Duncan's Restaurant in New York.

Loyell "Shad" Bryant was a standout football player from 1937-39. He, along with Clemson Intramurals Director Banks McFadden, played in the 1940 Cotton Bowl game that was coached by one of today's other inductees, Jess Neely. Bryant did a little bit of everything while he was at Tigertown. He was a wingback that accounted for 902 yards rushing, caught 15 passes for 295 yards, intercepted 5 passes, and ran back punts and kickoffs. Bryant has three Tiger records to his credit: most punt returns in a game (10), most punt return yards in a season (487), and most punt return yards in a career (779). Bryant recently passed away.

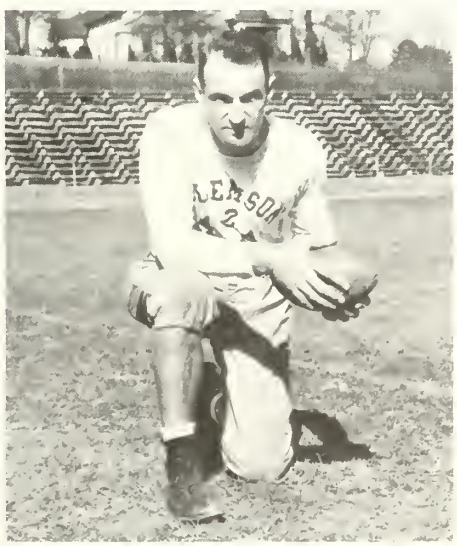
Russell Dorn



Jess Neely

Russell W. Dorn was a star boxer for the Tigers between 1937-38. He lost only one bout during his varsity career, in which he was Southern Conference Champion for two consecutive years. He was ranked fourth nationally in 1937, then moved up a notch to third in 1938. He was captain of the 1938 team which won the Southern Conference Championship. Russell Dorn is now the director of the Student and Employee Health Service at the New Jersey Medical School.

Jess Neely led Clemson to its first bowl appearance in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. It was also the Tigers' first bowl win, 6-3 over Boston College. Neely was head coach and athletic director at Clemson between 1931-39 and compiled a 43-35-7 won-loss record with the Tigers. In 1940, Neely assumed a similar position at Rice University, where he led the Owls to national prominence. In 1967, he returned to his Alma Mater, Vanderbilt University, where he assumed the role of athletic director. Jess Neely is now the golf coach at Vanderbilt.

The tiger, a long-time symbol of strength and aggressiveness for Clemson University, now assumes another prestigious role. The Order of the Silver Tiger is a new giving level recognizing alumni, parents, friends, faculty and staff who have given a minimum of $500 annually to the Clemson University Annual Fund.

Gifts to Clemson University enable deserving students to receive scholarships, add volumes to the Robert Muldrow Cooper Library, bring professors of distinction from other colleges and universities to campus for varying periods to share their expertise, and finance alumni professorships awarded to outstanding faculty members. These are just a few of the ways your gifts will be used to help secure Clemson University's future.

Your gift not only benefits the University, but also entitles you to become a charter member of the Order of the Silver Tiger, a new recognition program for your giving level.

As a Silver Tiger you will be recognized in the Clemson Honor Roll; honored at a special reception during the year and receive this distinctive Silver Tiger desk piece sculptured by Detter Hefner.

Through the Order of the Silver Tiger we can say "Thanks" for all you do for Clemson University.

Clemson and Stevens... working together to make better fabrics for us all.

With the valuable help of Clemson alumni, students and faculty, J. P. Stevens supplies much of the world's quality fabric needs for women's, men's and children's apparel, home furnishings and industry. Tiger alumni, in various management roles, help keep Stevens a recognized leader in the international market place. Clemson students help Stevens plants near the campus maintain high levels of productivity. Stevens and the textile industry as a whole benefit each year from the research and recommendations of Clemson faculty and graduate students.

Clemson and Stevens . . . helping to make better fabrics for us all.

Special Recognition

During the fiscal year 1978-79, Clemson's IPTAY Club experienced its finest year. For the fifteenth consecutive year contributions exceeded those of the previous twelve month period. IPTAY President Reeves Gressette and his staff, along with the more than 500 IPTAY Representatives, led the organization to a record setting year. An increase of almost thirty-eight percent above last year's contributions was realized and the organization achieved one hundred and fifty-six percent of its projected goal.

A LOT GOES INTO AGRICULTURE.

A lot goes into making your farm a success. But you must have a dependable credit source to ensure that you will have money to buy what you need when you need it.

That's where Farm Credit comes in. We provide capital to more farmers than any other lending institution. In fact, that's the only reason we're in business.

Let Farm Credit provide the money you need, when you need it, with repayment plans to suit your situation.

No other woodstove can pass this Ol' Hickory checklist.

- ✓ Heavy-duty firebox of 1/4" welded steel. No thin spots, no hairline cracks.
- ✓ Solid, one-piece, no-warp door of 5/8" cast iron.
- ✓ "Wraparound" heating chamber—top, bottom and sides—with 4 separate forced-air heat outlets.
- ✓ Thermostat-controlled electric fan system.
- ✓ High-efficiency burning. More than 90% of the firewood's heat energy is used to warm your house.
- ✓ Unattended heating time as long as 12 hours.
- ✓ Limited warranty for the LIFETIME of the original owner.

Only OL' HICKORY checks out all the way. And the fireplace model is easily convertible to a free-standing heating stove. One more thing—you'll like OL' HICKORY's square-deal prices.

P.S. TO DEALERS: OL' HICKORY is the hot one for 1979-80. Phone us and get the facts.

PRIDE IN TOTAL CAPABILITY

ELECTRICAL - MECHANICAL - CIVIL - CONTRACT MAINTENANCE

This is the world's largest terephthalic acid complex . . . Amoco Chemical Corporation's one billion pounds per year TPA facility, near Charleston, South Carolina. The site, adjacent to deep water, includes ship dock access by ocean-going tankers.

Yeargin Construction built this major new chemical complex. Our thousands of craftsmen provided comprehensive general contractor services in ELECTRICAL, MECHANICAL, and CIVIL project requirements . . . supervision and support services . . . all with our own forces.

We recognize that every industry's problems are unique. So are Yeargin's tailored solutions. As projects grow in size and complexity, effective construction handling becomes more critical. Our FULL SERVICE is an invaluable tool in controlling project costs and quality . . . and, after project start-up and occupancy . . . Yeargin CONTRACT MAINTENANCE service will care for your investment over the years.

You see complete "Grass Roots" production facilities, major expansions to existing manufacturing plants, institutional and commercial buildings . . . built by Yeargin . . . all over the Sun Belt.

As you plan your facilities growth . . . a new plant, or an addition . . . call Yeargin! Whether it's 1, 100, or thousands of craftsmen you need, we have the strength, the resources, the technical back-up, the commitment to quality, and P-R-I-D-E experience to do your job well in these, and other industries . . . • chemicals • pulp & paper • textiles • synthetic fibers • power generation . . . (field erected steam generators & precipitators) • aluminum reduction • steel • foundaries • metal fabrication • heavy assembly • tire & rubber • glass • petro-chemical • plastics • film • machine tools • nuclear products • food processing • pharmaceuticals • tobacco • furniture.

We're Yeargin Construction . . . The P-R-I-D-E builder. The Yeargin team understands P-R-I-D-E performance makes selecting Yeargin as your builder a satisfying decision. We know you want a dependable schedule, quality construction, innovative performance, and a cost estimate you can depend on. We deliver . . . with P-R-I-D-E!
